

STRAIGHT RIVER DAM PROJECT

The dewatering of the Straight River Dam Project was started on Friday evening, August 3, 2018. Several of the logs of the present dam were removed to allow the dewatering of the river in advance of construction of the new dam. Every 3 to 4 days more of the current structure will be removed to enable a slow draw down of the river.